As used herein, the term "Goods" refers to the product ordered by Buyer's purchase order and includes any services ordered by Buyer's purchase order.

2. ACCEPTANCE:

The acceptance by Seller that forms the Contract shall be deemed conclusively to have occurred upon (i) Seller's acceptance of the PO, (ii) Seller's shipment of any goods, (iii) Seller's performance of any services, or (iv) Seller's commencement of any work on supplies or Goods covered by the Contract, whichever shall occur first. Any acceptance by Seller on purported terms and conditions that differ in any way from the provisions of the Contract shall be effective to form and bind Seller to the Contract, but such differing or additional terms and conditions shall not become part of, or in any way supplant, alter, amend or otherwise modify any of the provisions of, the Contract. BUYER HEREBY PROVIDES NOTICE OF OBJECTION TO AND REJECTION OF ANY AND ALL ADDITIONAL AND DIFFERENT TERMS AND CONDITIONS.

3. DELIVERY:

- 3.1. Purchase order delivery schedules must be strictly adhered to. Early/late and/or over/under shipments of scheduled deliveries will not be accepted. Delivery shall be made by Seller at such times and places and of such items and quantities as Buyer may from time to time specify.
- 3.2. Seller shall notify Buyer in writing when discrepancies in Seller's process or Goods are discovered or suspected regarding Goods delivered or to be delivered under the Contract.
- 3.3. In the event of any anticipated or actual delay, Seller shall:
 - 3.3.1. Promptly notify Buyer in writing of the reasons for the delay and the actions being taken to overcome or minimize the delay;
 - 3.3.2. Provide Buyer with a written recovery schedule; and
 - 3.3.3. If requested by Buyer, ship via air or expedited routing to avoid or minimize delay to the maximum extent possible. Seller will pay the difference between the method of shipping specified and the actual expedited rate incurred.

The notification in Section 3.3.1 shall be informational only and shall not be construed as a waiver by Buyer of any delivery schedule or of any Buyer's rights or remedies provided by law or the Contract.

- 3.4. If Seller fails to make delivery promptly and regularly, as required under the Contract, Buyer may, in addition to other remedies available at law, terminate the Contract in whole or in part.
- 3.5. Title and risk of loss shall remain with Seller until Goods are delivered to Buyer's facility specified in the Contract.
- 3.6. Seller shall not substitute any product for a Good identified in an PO without Buyer's prior written consent. Seller, however, may seek to receive Buyer's approval for alternative products for which substitutions could be made, or for such alternatives, if they are fit for Buyer's purpose, of equivalent or better quality.

4. NON-EXCLUSIVITY:

Unless otherwise agreed in a writing signed by Buyer, this Contract is not intended to be, nor is it, an exclusive arrangement, firm commitment or purchase requirements contract. Rather, this Contract is intended to cover only such quantities of the Goods Buyer elects to purchase from Seller as specified on each PO. Any quantity estimates in a PO are only for planning purposes, and the Buyer shall not be required to purchase any fixed quantity of the Goods for which it has no actual need during the term of the Contract.

5. PACKAGING AND SHIPPING:

- 5.1. Seller shall pack, label and prepare the Goods for shipment in such a manner as to insure safe arrival at their destination, secure lowest transportation cost, conform with requirements of common carriers and, in any event, comply with Buyer's minimum specifications set forth in the specification document, or purchase order.

6. INSPECTION:

Buyer shall have the right to inspect any Goods supplied under the Contract at any time during the manufacture or fabrication thereof at Seller's facilities or elsewhere. Such inspection may include, without limitation, raw materials, components, work in process, and completed products as well as drawings, specifications, and released data. If any inspection or test is made by Buyer at Seller's facility or elsewhere, Seller shall provide reasonable facilities and assistance for the inspection personnel. No inspection, examination or test, regardless of extensiveness or type, and no approval given in connection with any such inspection, examination or test shall relieve Seller, or be claimed by Seller to relieve it, of any obligation to comply fully with all requirements of the Contract, including the obligation to produce Goods that conform to all requirements of the drawings, specifications, and other Contract Documents. Buyer may reject all Goods supplied under the Contract that are found to be defective. Seller shall bear risk of loss or damage to Goods rejected by Buyer. Goods so rejected may be returned to Seller at Seller's expense. At Buyer's request, Seller shall repair or replace defective Goods at Seller's expense. Failure to inspect goods, failure to discover defects in Goods or payment for Goods shall not constitute acceptance or limit any of Buyer's rights, including, without limitation, Buyer's warranty rights. In the event inspection reveals any defect and schedule urgency requires that the defect or defects be corrected by Buyer to support production, all cost of such correction, including, without limitation, installation and removal, will be charged to Seller; such charges will also include time and material and all other appropriate expenses.

Seller shall maintain an inspection system acceptable to Buyer covering the Goods furnished under the Contract. Seller shall permit Buyer to review procedures, practices, processes, and related documents to determine such acceptability. Seller shall keep records evidencing inspections and their results and shall make these records available to Buyer during Contract performance and for four years after final payment. Seller is expected to make the necessary commitments to achieve and maintain a 100% acceptance rate. In the event a Seller fails to maintain this rate, Buyer may begin termination for default proceedings per Section 12.2.
